

Pre-ICIS 2008 JPAIS/JASMIN Session

“Researches in Japan on IS / Researches on IS in Japan”

PROGRAMME

9H-12H30, Sunday 14th December 2008 @ Université de Paris, Dauphine

Co-Sponsors: Japan Association for Information Systems and Japan Society for Management Information

Chair: Masaaki HIRANO Sub-Chair: Tetsuya UCHIKI

Concepts and Tools

Motonari TANABU: Perception of Information Systems Concept

Motonari TANABU, Michiko MATSUSHITA*, Naoki SHIBA, Yoshikazu WATANABE and Kouitiro OBATA: Information System Process from the Viewpoint of Stakeholders and Evaluation of IS Implementation

Hiroki TOMIZAWA* and Tetsuya UCHIKI: An Information System Design Approach based on User's Roles

Naoki SHIBA: A methodological discussion on agent-based approach to social simulation

Evidences

Tomoaki SHIMADA: Benefits from B2B e-Procurement Systems

Akiko ORITA: Users attitude towards Anonymous and Real-name services on the Internet in Japan

Junichi IJIMA: 'Guanxi' beyond walls improves IT utilization

Masaaki HIRANO: Impact of organisational capability over the return on IT investments

International and Cross-Cultural Dimensions

Hideyuki MATSUMOTO and David W. WILSON: Contexts of Cross-Cultural Study in the Information Systems Academy

Tetsuya UCHIKI: The Characteristics of Information System Research in the Social Context of Japan